Weekly NewsBrief Kingwood Christian Church

October 20, 2011

Saturday is Cleaning Day in Our Lovely Fellowship Hall - 9:30 a.m.

Cleaning Day - Lot of Help Needed to put our Fellowship Hall in Order

Everyone is invited to Cleaning Day starting about 9:30, this Saturday morning. The new floors are in, and there is a lot of dust on everything. The men have been invited to come over after their breakfast to move the big things back into the children's rooms. All of the toys and equipment will need to be cleaned before they go back into the play room. People who use or work with the nursery and children's church would be especially helpful so we get things back where they are supposed to be.

The new refrigerator and freezer will be delivered later, but the rest of the kitchen is ready for a wipe down and clean up. We are working on getting new glides for the tables and chairs, and hope people will not drag the heavy tables across the new floors. We tried to make durable selections, but it will take all of us to keep it looking good as we use the space. There is still a lot to do, but we are getting there.

We still have a neighborhood volunteer who checks weekly for coupons to send to troops overseas. Even expired coupons are accepted at some locations overseas.

Our supply has been a bit low lately. Diane says that in Early October, companies put out a lot of upcoming holiday coupons. She'll drop by next week, so please keep the coupons coming!!!
